

Daniel Sach Le, Private Practice

Daniel Sach Le immigrated to the United States in 1975 from Vietnam. Daniel graduated from the U of M with a B.S. in Economics and J.D. from Mitchell Hamline College of Law in 1997. Upon graduating law school, Daniel practiced at Southern Minnesota Regional Legal Services, Inc., (SMRLS), and St. Paul City Attorney's Office until becoming a private practitioner in 2003 – present. Daniel is currently a proud member of the Federal Criminal Justice Panel, Board Member for the MN Board of Public Defense, and Mixed Blood Theater. He has resided in the Kingfield and Tangletown neighborhoods in south Minneapolis since 2001.

